

ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
February 19, 2007

The Administrative Council met on Monday, February 19, 2007 at 6:00 p.m. in the Meeting Room. Bill Pipkins, Chairman, called the meeting to order. John Fowler gave the devotion. The minutes were approved as presented.

Gene Hendricks, Treasurer, handed out a brief financial report. He reported that our debt is paid down to $1,700,000. The loan becomes due 3-15-07 at Wachovia. They have looked into financing a permanent loan with all of the banks in our community. The two banks that have requested some information are Sun Trust and Bank of Granite. The Finance Committee will make a decision which bank to use.

John Fowler informed the Council about our Shrove Tuesday Breakfast and Ash Wednesday Service.

Keith Smith reported that there were going to be many programs during the Easter season.

Aaron Horn reported that some of our youth that are attending the community college have formed a band and need a place to practice. He asked for permission for them to do this. Some discussion took place. It was decided to have one of them contact Kent Riddle, Trustees Chairman.

Kent Riddle, Trustees Chairman, reported that the building on 321 has been sold and the money will go to the Building Fund. He asked everyone to be sure to cut off lights, etc. when they leave the building.

Barbara Love reported that the Worship Committee was trying to make the CLC look a little more contemporary.

Barbara Bellamy, Parish Nurse, thanked everyone for making her feel welcome. She plans to hold a Red Cross CPR Class in the future.

Bill Armfield reported that Glenn Owens will take Dick Graham's place on the Scout Council. There are several events that the Scouts will be involved in the near future. March 5th will be the Blue and Gold Banquet in the CLC.

The UMM will have their monthly breakfast meeting next week.

John introduced Andy Lambert. He is a conference evangelist.

Andy gave us an uplifting talk concerning evangelism.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Weiller, Secretary
